Boy the years fly by! It's senior health check time again and this is the third year I qualify. It's actually a very good idea to have these checks though, your people can help prevent some pretty serious health issues developing by catching any early symptoms at these visits plus how amazing is this deal with everything you get for only $99?!

So if you are now in your 'golden years' get your people to pop you into your local blue cross clinic this month to take advantage of this furrstastic deal!
